looking forward

As a community, we have triumphed over challenging and uncertain times during the recent years. Come Out With Pride recognized the sanctity of our space and how much our community mourned our inability to gather in 2020. Therefore in 2021, we were thrilled to bring Pride back to Downtown Orlando with our fun-packed festival, a new longer parade route, two entertainment stages with national headliners, our inclusive family area, an innovative sober space and a fantastic fireworks finale show.

Following CDC guidelines and the commissioning of a survey showing the local LGBTQIA+ community was 92% vaccinated, we invited our community to safely enjoy festivities created by us and for us — a time to celebrate as our authentic selves and love who we love.

Come Out With Pride received an overwhelmingly enthusiastic response from our valued community members, partners and sponsors. Our 2021 Pride celebration was attended by an estimated 200,000 people from all over Central Florida and the Southeast region, surpassing expectations and making it our biggest and best celebration yet!

As a small nonprofit organization, 2021 was a year of tremendous growth for Come Out With Pride:

- The hiring of an Executive Director — I am dedicated to increasing our year-round programming, strengthening our community relations, and focusing on diversity, equity, inclusion and belonging.

- We faced challenging community-centric conversations about police involvement with Pride. Valuable input and feedback led to positive outcomes and opportunities for further dialogue and actions.

- We proudly partnered with the National Trans Visibility March as the first host city outside of the inaugural Washington D.C. March. This was an incredible opportunity to highlight and uplift the trans, gender non-conforming and non-binary voices both locally and nationally.

- Last but not least, we reignited our efforts to build our bid to bring WorldPride 2026 to Orlando. With less than a year to present our bid in late October 2022, we are diligently working to create an incredible presentation showcasing Orlando to a global audience.

As you can imagine, we've set our goals high for 2022. We are confident it will be an even bigger and better year for Come Out With Pride! If you have partnered with us in the past, we greatly appreciate your support and look forward to another amazing year. If you are a new supporter, we warmly welcome you — and rest assured our collaboration and your contributions will have a significant impact on our regional community.

Together, we are resilient. We are strong. We are Orlando, and we will KEEP DANCING. This is your Pride and I look forward to seeing you October 15, 2022!

- Tatiana Quiroga (She/Ella), Executive Director

Throughout our parade and festival we #KeepDancingOrlando to remember, honor and celebrate the lives of those affected by the attack at Pulse on June 12, 2016. In the days and months that followed this tragedy, the world showed Orlando enormous love and compassion. In 2026, ten years later, we hope to again bring the world together right here by hosting WorldPride—a massive two-week event that could attract well over a million visitors to our region and foster further positive change for the LGBTQIA+ community on a global scale.

We will be assembling and presenting our bid in late October 2022 and your pledge of support will help make this effort possible. Please email worldpride@comeoutwithpride.org to learn more about WorldPride bid sponsorship opportunities or how you can get involved.
