our mission

Create spaces that foster a sense of acceptance and encourages LGBTQIA+ community members to live openly, authentically, and with pride.

Advocate for the end of discrimination, homophobia, transphobia, and anti-LGBTQIA+ violence and hateful acts.

Encourage fellowship and support among participating businesses, professionals, individuals, and charitable pursuits in the LGBTQIA+ and allied communities.
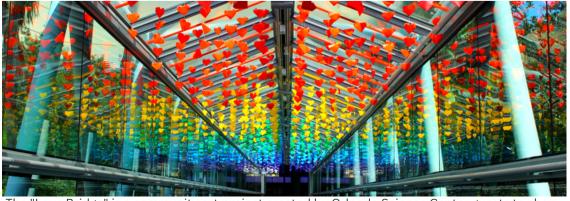

Provide financial support to other LGBTQIA+ grassroots non-profit organizations and students in the local area through the making of grants and scholarships made possible from the proceeds of each year's event.

Pride Prom : Express Yourself

Come Out With Pride is committed to creating an accepting space for members of the LGBTQIA+ community. Therefore, we are thrilled to host our annual Pride Prom: Express Yourself, giving adult members of our community and our allies the opportunity to attend our Prom as their authentic selves with the confidence and freedom to dress as they feel and bring whomever they want as their date(s). It will be a night full of Prom staples, including dancing, exciting entertainment, photo booth, VIP experience and more!

Join us on April 28th at the Orlando Science Center

The "Love Bridge" is a community art project created by Orlando Science Center guests to show support for those affected by the PULSE tragedy.
